PSALM C.

O GOD, our Father's God, to Thee,
With swelling heart and bending knee,
We bring our annual song of praise,
That thou hast lengthened out our days.

We bless thy name, Almighty God,
For this good land our fathers trod;
And all the favor thou hast shown,
The State and Age we call our own.

Here Freedom spreads her banner wide;
Here Learning and Religion guide
By Heavenly Truth's unfading ray,
Our youth in Wisdom's narrow way.

From Thee unnumbered blessings flow,—
Life, health and strength Thy hands bestow;
And every good thy creatures share
Springs from thy providential care.

From Thee proceed domestic ties,—
Connubial bliss—parental joys;
On Thy support the nations stand
Obedient to Thy high command.

Let every power of heart and tongue
Unite to swell the grateful song;
While Age and Youth in chorus join,
And praise the Majesty divine!

PSALM CXVII.

From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Jehovah's glorious name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.

Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord,
And truth eternal is Thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
'Till suns shall rise and set no more.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,—
Praise him, all creatures here below:
Praise him above, ye angelic host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
